5 does the accent come in Emperatrix - 20 ?

Dear Rene 12. 11. 35 Fort Hotel. Sidmouth

In a photograph of a page of Ninnius M.S.S. 'Historia Brittonum' in a book in my art there are the following lines (two of my arthur battles) do these abbreviations signify what indicate 'ur.'-

1 in litore fluminis quod vocatur Tribruit ?

2 in ostium fluminis quod dicitur glein ?

(ar / ar a I can make out later on it says, (I try & copy it) sheaves must be added in quo corruer in uno die n gentis sexd (?) gntd viri de uno impetu arthur. is the very earliest mention of arthur.

Two Celtic place names

I know what these two lines / means. I think but will you tell me what quot vocatur. dicitur plane. why not vocatur? please let me know the plural

3 of tadcaers. ?

4 What days chief is "loving & giving" in the rhyme. Tom will know, is it wednesdays? Tom wrote to me and asked if he could read the letter Powys sent to Jan & Tom sent. Will Jan let him have it, if Jan think fit! —— much love to Jan dear Rene David. P.T.O.

Wednesday

meaned to post this last night now you must get it till Friday Max has been terrific here & a couple of busts right on the hotel or right at high tide as each wave strikes the wall great showers pass through the building Exactly like shells falling in the Tob for a very short distance My side is a bit of a bore & seem to be taking a great while to heal
I do wish it were happening Love & Pam Part IV finished in a week. If only you were married tomorrow or illness or anything happen.
In the P.C. for Provence from Damascus
She said she was awfully happy.
We had motored over to The Lebanon.
I wrote to Leo & Tommy yesterday at Jerusalem — Love to you both David
For Joan

The muscles from ear to the inside corner of the pectoral muscles under my right breast & arm pit.
